Entrepreneurial Women

Tuesday, January 10, 2012

A woman who organizes and operates a business or businesses, taking on financial risk to do so. We all know them - women who own their own businesses. Our organization is full of women who fit this description. But do they consider themselves entrepreneurs? What inspired them along their journey to entrepreneurialship? What risks did they take along the way? What mistakes did they make? Was it all worth it?

Please join us in January to meet three women who are successful, local entrepreneurs - Caroline Geishecker, owner of Chatham Coffee Company and Cakes on Cape Cod, Jennifer L. Thyng, Esq., a solo practitioner in Orleans, and Julie Eitelbach, owner of The Wireless Zone in Orleans - and find out what makes them tick, why they did what they did and whether they would do it all again if they could!

BPW/LCC MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of BPW Lower Cape Cod's local organization shall be to achieve equity for all women in the workplace through advocacy, education and information.

A Message from your Co-Presidents:

WOW, what a great meeting we had in December at the Jailhouse. There was great food and generous hearts on behalf of The Children's Place. What wonders we as women can accomplish. It was a wonderful meeting with members and guests alike. It makes us proud. Many thanks to Kate McCauley for her informative talk about the Children's Place.

We hope every member is considering attending the winter state meeting being held in Falmouth at the Coonamesett Inn on the 28th of January. We will have more information at our meeting.

We wish to each of you a happy, healthy and prosperous year in 2012 and we will see you at our January meeting and please bring a guest or two.

Thanks to everyone for their support,

Pat and Roberta

Every meeting we will have a drawing for a door prize for all our guests who attend the meeting. Our door prize winner for December was Paula Dadmon!

"Most people are so busy knocking themselves out trying to do everything they think they should do, they never get around to do what they want to do."

Thank you

A lovely Thank You note was received from Kate McCauley of the Cape Cod Children's Place....

It was very generous of you to take the time to learn more about us at your December meeting and hold a fundraiser for us. You did a good thing to help our school and local families. We greatly appreciate all of your generosity and support!

Kate McCauley, Cape Cod Children's Place

December Meeting....

The December meeting was attended by the most generous of women. We raised $650 to help the Cape Cod Children's Place. $75 of that came at the end of the evening AFTER the raffle was over! Thank you to all who participated and donated gifts. I hope you enjoyed the lovely baskets. Kudos to Pat and Roberta for all their efforts in putting the baskets together.

From Kristine Chiarappo ---- Hi there~

I have started a new business called Luna Products. You can find my site on www.etsy.com/shop/lunaproducts. I make organic candles, soaps, essential oils and gift cards along with body lotions and other beauty products including Chapstick. Hmmm...there is nothing new with my Greener Cleaners business other than I am now offering a discount for off season cleanings. So that is new! LOL The discount is $25p/h rather than $30p/h and I leave a homemade soap after each cleaning. Thanks!!!

Women of Achievement Event
To Celebrate National Women's Week
Submitted by Sarah Ciampa, Cranberry District Co-Director

The turn-out at Wednesday, October 19th in Hyannis, to honor this year's Women of Achievement was very strong. There were a total of 56 people in attendance and a strong support by the Lower Cape Local was appreciated by all those that worked on this event.

The Honorable Sarah Peake, our 4th Barnstable District State Representative was the Presenter for the evening. Sarah does a tremendous job of supporting this WOA event by giving personal introductions to the Honorees. This was the 3rd year we've been so lucky to have Sarah Peake as our Emcee for the National Business Women's Week event. Sarah also presented each Honoree with both a proclamation from Governor Patrick Duval, as well as a proclamation for the Massachusetts House of Representatives. Honorees were also given a certificate of recognition from the BPW Local that was honoring them.

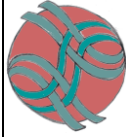

Honoree, Beth Marcus is Co-Owner and Business Manager of Cape Cod Beer Company. She was the Honoree of the Upper Cape Local. Beth wears many hats within her company and serves as a Board Member to several local organizations. She is also a charity organizer, mentor to 6th and 7th graders, mom to two boys and wife to husband Todd. Beth shared with us her professional challenges running and starting a micro-brewery here on Cape Cod. Beth encouraged us all, as the Holiday Season approaches, and everyday really, to think LOCALLY and support the local businesses here on Cape Cod. Next time you have guests on Cape; make sure they take a tour of her Cape Cod Beer Company.

Honoree, Dorothy A. Savarese, is President and CEO of Cape Cod Five Cents Savings Bank. Dorothy was the Honoree from the Lower Cape Local. Dorothy rose through the ranks from her hire in 1993 to her current position in 2005. At "the Five" she chairs the Trustee and Investment Board and the Charitable Foundation Trust. She serves on the Board of local community organizations as well as professional affiliations. Dorothy's Grandmother was actually a suffragette and Dorothy knows well the experience of being one of the only women at meetings and events during her career. Dorothy believes that we need to continue to empower women and acknowledge and celebrate the many achievements made by each of us.

The event at Alberto's Ristorante, as well as the dinner, was very special and one we all enjoyed. The evening provided an opportunity to celebrate and recognize how the continuation of our BPW mission continues to be so important: BPW's Mission is to achieve equity for all women in the workplace through advocacy, education and information.
